

them when the personal property tax went off. And so I'm just explaining why I oppose the bill, because I think we're opening the door to a lot more exemptions further down the line and goodness only knows, we're sure letting a lot of people out now and let's shut the door where it's at. Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. The member from Gering, Senator Weihing.

SENATOR WEIHING: Mr. Speaker, I call for the question.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Weihing moves the previous question. Do I see five hands? I do. Those in favor of ceasing debate please signify by voting aye, opposed nay. Record.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Debate closes. Senator Haberman, would you care to close on your amendment?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, I move that we adopt the amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. You have heard the motion...or you have heard the closing and the question is the adoption of the Haberman amendment to LB 185. Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Voting on the Haberman amendment. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 7 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Haberman's amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The amendment is adopted. Anything else on the bill? Senator Haberman, I'm sorry, would you care to readvance? Those in favor of.... I'm sorry, it is debatable. Senator Wesely, please.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you. Mr. Speaker, members, I'd like to have Senator Johnson and Senator Landis, if you could, and others if you want, to look on page 1953. Senator Warner raised a very good issue and I think you better look at the exact language here so we know exactly what we're doing. I think Senator Warner made a point that needs to be perhaps strengthened here with the adoption of that amendment. If you read the language, I think what Senator Warner's point was, and we've discussed this privately and I think he's absolutely
